

WHAT IS THE FEDERATION ?

The Federation of Australian Historical Societies is the peak body representing approximately 1,000 historical and heritage societies in Australia. Their members (approaching 100,000) provide hundreds of thousands of hours of voluntary work to: collect documents and images; research and publish history; present public lectures and exhibitions; protect and preserve built and place heritage; collect material objects and exhibit them in museums; and make an invaluable contribution to heritage tourism.

WHAT DOES THE FEDERATION DO ?

encourages the study of Australian history and the preservation and publication of historical material promotes communication and mutual assistance within the historical society movement; provides a forum for the exchange of ideas assists the work of constituents.

promotes the views of constituents provides a national focus on matters of general concern to Constituents performs an advocacy role with all levels of government makes submissions and recommendations to government agencies serves on government bodies addressing history and heritage issues develops strategies to strengthen interaction between constituent members and governments supports the work of historical societies by publishing free of charge guides on such topics as identification and preservation of heritage sites management of movable heritage publishing of history heritage tourism

cultural landscapes

produces a Newsletter and an e-Bulletin on a regular basis; manages the online Australian Historical Societies Support Group; maintains its website www.history.org.au.

CONSTITUENT MEMBERS

Canberra and District Historical Society

www.canberrahistory.org.au

Royal Australian Historical Society

www.rahs.org.au

Historical Society of the Northern Territory www.historicalocietynt.org.au

Royal Historical Society of Queensland www.queenslandhistory.org.au

History Trust of South Australia

www.history.sa.gov.au

Tasmanian Historical Research Association

www.thra.org.au

Royal Historical Society of Victoria www.historyvictoria.org.au

Royal Western Australian Historical Society

www.histwest.org.au

CONTACT THE FEDERATION

GPO Box 1440 Canberra ACT 2601

Email: fahs@history.org.au